

Sample Wedding Shots List

The following list is just a starting guide to the types of shots that can be taken. It is a good idea to review the list and discuss with Tammi the shots you feel are “must haves” so that we can be as prepared as possible on the wedding day and to ensure those special moments are captured. While Tammi will take as many photos as possible in a photojournalistic/candid method, some shots must be posed.

Tammi is always looking for inspiration so if you come across a lovely shot online or in a magazine, please show it to her and she will make every effort to try and duplicate the shot for you.
